- the airfield is located on the southeastern edge of Tillis (Toilisi) (41042: 1/hh045:E), -corgian S.S.R., approximately 700 meters east of the Tiflic-Navtlug railroad station, just north of the road to Telavi (41055 m/45031 %). It was a military airfield. There were no runways or taxiways, Aircraft were parted in four degressions in the gound on the northern edge of the field.
- 2. Three large corrugated sheet metal hangars with large gat s were located east of the degressions. A block of three or four buildings. was close behind these. according to Fa s, workshops, the flight control station, depots and possibly also billets were housed in the buildings. All of the houses had onion-shaped dones, thus making them look like a Russian cloister.
- 3 . The field was occupied by twin-engine mid-wing monoplanes with radial engines and single rudder assemblies. The planes made flights in formations of up to twelve aircraft.
